However, the Act does not apply to:

- (a) court ordered transfers;
- (b) transfers to a mortgagee by a mortgagor in default;

- (g) transfer between spouses under a divorce judgment incidental to such a judgment;
- (h) transfers or exchanges to or from any governmental entity; and
- (i) transfers made by a person of newly constructed residential property that has not been inhabited.

3. When does the Seller's Disclosure Statement have to be provided to the Purchaser? In a sale, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes a purchase agreement with the transferor. In an installment sales contract (where a binding purchase contract has not been executed), or in the case of a lease with no option to purchase, before or at the time the prospective transferee executes the installment sales contract or lease with the transferor.

SELLER'S DISCLOSURE STATEMENTInstructions to the Seller for Seller's Disclosure Statement

5. What is the remedy if the Seller does not provide the Seller's Disclosure Statement to the Transferee? DC Lead Disclosure Form

Information about Lead-Based Paint in this Property

Purpose: Inform potential renters and homebuyers of the presence of lead-based paint and related hazards in the property they are considering.

Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can be a health hazard, especially for young children and pregnant women. Owners or managers of these properties must provide information about lead-based paint in the property that they want to rent or sell. DC requires the renter or buyer to have this information before they decide to rent or purchase the property.

This form does not replace the Federal Lead Disclosure form. DC law provides additional protections for the renter or purchaser. A DC Lead Disclosure form is not required for properties built in 1978 or later.

Are you a POTENTIAL TENANT or BUYER?

Review this page carefully before following instructions on page two.

- Knowledge about any lead-based paint related legal actions taken against the property.

Property owners and managers: keep the signed original of this form on record for at least 6 years, as you may be audited by the DC Department of Energy and Environment.

What to look for inside the property or in the property's common areas:
